

16.06.11

RIBA Awards 2011

89 winners in the UK; 89 limited edition AJ covers
THIS COVER Hudson Architects, Bavent House

£4.95 / THE ARCHITECTS' JOURNAL / THEAJ.CO.UK

THE WEEK IN PICTURES

THE WEEK

- 1. Shipping containers house
London-based Benjamin Garcia Saxe Architecture has completed this £24,500, 100m² home in Costa Rica, built from two shipping containers
- 2. Foster makes Beirut debut
Foster + Partners has broken ground on a 100,000m² residential-led three-tower scheme in Beirut, Lebanon
- 3. Broadgate listing debate
English Heritage has hit back at claims it has 'deliberately tried to frustrate' Make's 5 Broadgate development after recommending the existing City of London campus for Grade II* listing
- 4. O2 skywalk designs submitted
Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners has finally submitted designs for a 'skywalk' allowing visitors to walk across the O2 in south London. The project was exclusively revealed in the AJ more than three years ago

1. ANDRES GARCIA LACHNER 2. FOSTER + PARTNERS
3. RIBA LIBRARY PHOTOGRAPHS COLLECTION 4. ROGERS STIRK HARBOUR + PARTNERS

THE WEEK IN PICTURES

AJ THE WEEK

1. Shipping containers house
London-based Benjamin Garcia Saxe Architecture has completed this £24,500, 100m² home in Costa Rica, built from two shipping containers

2. Foster makes Beirut debut
Foster + Partners has broken ground on a 100,000m² residential-led three-tower scheme in Beirut, Lebanon

3. Broadgate listing debate
English Heritage has hit back at claims it has 'deliberately tried to frustrate' Make's 5 Broadgate development after recommending the existing City of London campus for Grade II* listing

4. O2 skywalk designs submitted
Rogers Stirk Harbour + Partners has finally submitted designs for a 'skywalk' allowing visitors to walk across the O2 in south London. The project was exclusively revealed in the AJ more than three years ago

